OUR PROGRAM PROVIDES THE BEST SERVICES

FREE INFORMATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP WORKSHOP
(Rising 9th-12th grade, current college students, and/or parents)
We will discuss the importance of scholarships and how to kick-start/continue the scholarship preparation, seeking and achievement process. This presentation is recommended for students and/or parents prior to any scholarship boot camp or essay writing workshop.

SCHOLARSHIP BOOTCAMP
(Rising 9th-12th grade and current college students)
Students will learn how to strategically prepare, search and apply for scholarships, create success resumes, improve their scholarship interview skills, learn the difference between the multiple levels of scholarships, and learn how to strategically search for scholarships that best fit for their student profile.

THE WRITE START ESSAY WRITING WORKSHOP
(Rising 9th-12th grade, current college and graduate students)
Students will learn how to deconstruct scholarship essay prompts and useful tips/techniques for writing noteworthy responses. Students will have the opportunity to work with a Certified English teacher(s), participate in brainstorming exercises, analyze successful scholarship essays and begin constructing their own.

EXTREME SCHOLARSHIP BOOTCAMP
(Rising 9th-12th grade and current college students)
We will combine our Scholarship Bootcamp and The Write Start Essay Writing Workshop into one EXTREME Scholarship Bootcamp. Students will learn how to strategically prepare, search and apply for scholarships, create their success resumes, improve their scholarship interview skills, receive excellent scholarship essay writing tips and assistance from a certified English teacher(s).

TRAIN-THE-TRAINER (PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT)
Designed for any professional that helps support high school (including rising 9th graders), college or graduate students. We will discuss why students struggle with completing the scholarship process, strategic plans to help push them forward, how to communicate with parents/guardians for support, scholarship essay-writing tips and more!

This workshop can also be converted into a training for students. Selected students will be encouraged to interact with each other to become a leading voice and support at their school in motivating new and current students to apply for scholarships.

ABOUT PACE

The mission of PACE Scholarship Academy (PACE) is to provide high school (including rising 9th graders), college and graduate students with useful information and vital tools for preparing, seeking and achieving scholarships. Melinda Muhlbauer, certified Guidance/Professional School Counselor and Founder of PACE, educates students on how to effectively use their grades, economic status, personal circumstances, and extracurricular involvement to secure funds in support of their higher education goals. Students who present the best preparation, organization, and dedication upon applying achieve the best results. Through a variety of comprehensive workshops, PACE uses its platform to bring students, parents, education professionals, and scholarship organizations together to discuss, review, and practice such skills throughout their scholarship process.
